FSC Webinar on Demystification of Virtual Assets and Initial Token Offerings – Invitation to Industry Stakeholders

The Financial Services Commission, Mauritius ("FSC") is organising a webinar on Demystification of Virtual Assets and Initial Token Offerings scheduled for Friday 18 November 2022 at 2 pm (Mauritius time).

The objective of this webinar is, inter-alia, to provide stakeholders of the financial services industry with more insight and understanding on the following topics:

- (i) Virtual Assets and Initial Token Offerings;
- (ii) International trends and developments in the virtual asset ecosystem; and
- (iii) Opportunities and challenges for the sustainable development of the virtual assets market in the Mauritius International Financial Centre.

The webinar will be presented by a team of experts from gunnercooke llp, an international law firm which has recently collaborated with the FSC on the formulation of subsidiary Rules under the Virtual Asset and Initial Token Offerings Services Act 2021.

Industry stakeholders who are interested to attend this forthcoming webinar are invited to register via the following Zoom link:
