FSC One Platform – Post-Licensing Module

The Financial Services Commission, Mauritius (FSC) is pleased to inform its Licensees that it has successfully completed its Post-Licensing Module on the FSC One Platform, which will allow its Licensees to create and submit online their requests for post-licensing transactions.

For information, the FSC launched the FSC One Platform on 12 August 2021 for the online submission of applications for both the Global Business and domestic sectors. Thereafter, the statutory filing module was rolled out on the platform in May 2022, which enabled its Licensees to submit their statutory documents (e.g. audited financial statements/annual reports) online as from 31 December 2021.

The following functionalities for the Post-Licensing module have been implemented and are now accessible on the FSC One Platform under the tab 'My Clients':

- My Clients - Main screen for Management Company (MC) view
- Requests to FSC – MC view
- Name change
- Year-end change
- Termination Actions - Termination of activity
- Termination Actions - Winding up
- Termination Actions - Re-domiciliation
- Restoration / reinstatement
- Change in director

- Other Incumbents (Money Laundering Reporting Officer, Deputy Money Laundering Reporting Officer...)
- Contacts
- Remove from Register / Defunct
- Appointment of administrator
- Removal of administrator
- Appointment of liquidator
- Removal of liquidator

Several virtual training sessions have been scheduled to assist Licensees to use the Post-Licensing functionalities. Details of the zoom link will be communicated to the MCs.
