

COMMUNIQUÉ

International Accolade for the Chairperson of the Financial Services Commission, Dr Rama Krishna Sithanen, G.C.S.K., by African Leadership Magazine

The Financial Services Commission, Mauritius (FSC) extends its heartfelt congratulations to its Chairperson, Dr Rama Krishna Sithanen, G.C.S.K., on being recognised as Co-Winner of the prestigious Central Bank Governor of the Year 2025 Award by the highly respected African Leadership Magazine.

The FSC takes immense pride in Dr Sithanen's international recognition, which honours his exemplary stewardship as Governor of the Bank of Mauritius and his decisive role in strengthening macroeconomic fundamentals, institutional credibility and financial sector transformation.

As Chairperson of the FSC, Dr Sithanen has brought to the Commission the same level of intellectual rigour, strategic vision and policy depth that have defined his professional career. His dual leadership has helped foster greater synergy between monetary policy objectives and regulatory oversight, strengthening Mauritius' international reputation as a sound, innovative and forward-looking financial jurisdiction.

This accolade is a timely recognition of Dr Sithanen's commitment to principled governance and future-oriented policymaking. At the FSC, his stewardship has reinforced the organisation's resolve to pursue regulatory excellence, sustainable market development and investor protection in a rapidly evolving global financial landscape.

The Commission congratulates Dr Sithanen on this well-deserved honour and reaffirms its full support for his continued contribution to the resilience, sophistication and global connectivity of Mauritius' financial ecosystem.
