Young Talent Competition 2014

The Financial Services Commission ('FSC') launched the third edition of Young Talent Competition ('YTC') on 14 March 2014. The FSC Chief Executive Ms. Clairette Ah-Hen proceeded to this launching at the FSC House in the presence of a number of students, teachers as well as industry representatives who collaborated with the Commission as jury members for the Competition last year.

The theme for this year is "The Future of the Mauritius International Financial Centre".

The objective of the YTC competition is to create awareness and encourage interest in financial services amongst students as well as to enable them to get a better understanding of financial services for general knowledge and future employability.

Two categories are concerned this year.

		Number of Entries Received
Category 1	Quiz Competition for Form IV and V students	88 entries from 36 Institutions
Category 2	Essay Competition for Lower Six and Upper Six students	104 entries from 40 Institutions
