PART II – THE COMMISSION

6. Objects of Commission

- (1) This Act shall be administered by the Commission.
- (2) In administering this Act, the Commission shall—
 - (a) promote the confident and informed participation of investors and consumers in, and the efficiency of, securities markets in Mauritius;
 - (b) improve the protection of investors in Mauritius from unfair, improper and fraudulent practices in relation to securities;
 - (c) foster fair, efficient, transparent and informed markets for securities in Mauritius;

- (d) reduce systemic risk in the Mauritius financial sector in collaboration with other agencies;
- (e) regulate the disclosure of information by persons issuing securities and by reporting issuers to securities holders and to the public;
- (f) monitor and regulate the operation of securities exchanges and the activities of persons providing clearing and settlement services and trading systems for securities;
- (g) suppress and prevent financial crimes and illegal practices;
- (h) cooperate and collaborate with domestic and international organisations, law enforcement, supervisory and regulatory bodies; and
- (i) carry out research and collect, compile, publish and disseminate data and information on the securities industry.

(3) Without prejudice to any powers provided under any other enactment, the Commission shall have such powers as are necessary for the performance of its functions and the attainment of its objects under this Act.

[S. 6 amended by s. 5 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

7. Delegation of powers

(1) The Commission may delegate to the Chief Executive such powers and functions under this Act as may be necessary for the effective administration of this Act, other than the power to make rules.

(2) The Chief Executive may delegate any of the delegated powers and functions under subsection (1) to a member of staff of the Commission, other than the power to—

- (a) order an investigation under section 124; and
- (b) issue a cease trade order under section 133.

(3) In performing or exercising powers and functions delegated under subsection (1) or (2), the delegate shall comply with any direction given by the Commission or by the Chief Executive, as the case may be.

(4) A delegated power or function, when performed or exercised by the delegate, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be taken to have been performed or exercised by the Commission or by the Chief Executive, as the case may be.

(5) A delegation shall not prevent the performance or exercise of the delegated power or function by the Commission or by the Chief Executive, as the case may be.

8. Code of ethics

(1) The Minister may, by regulations, make code of ethics for the members of the Board of the Commission, the Chief Executive and the staff of the Commission relating to—

- (a) acceptance of gifts or other reward;
- (b) other employment within the securities industry;
- (c) acting as or accepting a function as an officer of a reporting issuer, a licensee, an SRO or a collective investment scheme; and
- (d) their involvement in securities transactions.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide that any person who contravenes them shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

PART III – FINANCIAL MARKETS REGULATION

Sub-Part A – Securities Exchanges, Clearing and Settlement Facilities and Securities Trading Systems

9. Licence for securities exchanges

(1) No person shall establish, maintain or operate a securities exchange in Mauritius, whether physically, electronically or otherwise, unless the person holds a securities exchange licence issued by the Commission.

(2) No person other than a body corporate incorporated or registered in Mauritius as a public company shall hold a licence to operate a securities exchange.

[S. 9 amended by s. 6 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

10. Licence for clearing and settlement facilities

(1) No person shall provide, whether physically, electronically or otherwise, services in Mauritius with respect to the deposit, clearing or settlement of securities transactions unless the person holds a clearing and settlement facility licence issued by the Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to the clearing and settlement facility provided by the Bank of Mauritius for securities it issues on its own behalf or on behalf of the Government of Mauritius.

[S. 10 amended by s. 7 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

11. Licence for securities trading systems

No person shall establish, maintain or operate in Mauritius, whether physically, electronically or otherwise, a securities trading system independent of a licensed securities exchange, unless the person holds a licence issued by the Commission.

[S. 11 amended by s. 8 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

12. Matters required for grant of licences under this Sub-Part

(1) The Commission shall not grant a securities exchange licence, a clearing and settlement facility licence or a securities trading systems licence unless it is satisfied that, having regard to the general condition, needs and interests of the capital market and the community, there is a need for the additional facility or system proposed to be authorised by the licence.

(2) The Commission shall not grant a securities exchange licence unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant has operating rules and procedures adequate to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that the market will operate fairly, transparently and in an orderly way;

- (b) the applicant has adequate rules or systems for—

- (i) handling conflicts between the commercial interests of the applicant and the need for it to ensure that the securities exchange operates fairly, transparently and in an orderly way;
 - (ii) monitoring the conduct of participants on, or in relation to, the securities exchange; and
 - (iii) enforcing compliance with the operating rules of the market;
- (c) the applicant has or has access to adequate clearing and settle-ment arrangements for transactions effected through the securities exchange; and
 - (d) the applicant, and each of its officers, are fit and proper persons.

[S. 12 amended by s. 9 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

13. Securities exchange rules

(1) A securities exchange may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, for or with respect to the operation of the securities exchange.

(2) Rules made under subsection (1) may provide for—

- (a) the terms and conditions for access to the securities exchange, including conditions related to financial integrity and business ethics;
- (b) the terms and conditions for admission of securities for listing on the securities exchange;
- (c) the conditions under which securities are to be traded on the securities exchange;
- (d) enforcement and disciplinary procedures and sanctions to be applied;
- (e) the management of conflicts of interest;
- (f) rules and conditions concerning the buy back of listed securities by companies whose securities are listed;
- (fa) rules and conditions relating to the expiry of futures contracts or other derivatives, and to the modes of corresponding delivery and settlement;
- (g) procedures to give effect to directions of the Commission; and
- (h) rules of conduct for officers and employees of the securities exchange and for members of committees established for the securities exchange.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be of no effect unless approved by the Commission.

(4) Rules made under this section shall have the effect of a contract between the securities exchange and each of the following—

- (a) each issuer whose securities are admitted for listing on the securities exchange;

- (b) each person permitted to use the securities exchange to trade securities, under which each of those persons agrees to observe and perform the obligations imposed on the person by those rules.

[S. 13 amended by s. 10 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

14. Clearing and settlement facility rules

(1) A clearing and settlement facility may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, any regulations made under this Act, or any FSC Rules, for or with respect to the operation of the facility.

(2) Rules made under subsection (1) may provide for—

- (a) clearing and settlement procedures;
- (b) the operation of a book-entry system;
- (c) the dematerialisation of securities in connection with the facility.

(3) Rules made under this section shall be of no effect unless approved by the Commission.

(4) Rules made under this section shall have the effect of a contract between—

- (a) the clearing and settlement facility; and
- (b) each person permitted to use the clearing and settlement facility, under which each of those persons agrees to observe and perform the obligations imposed on the person by those rules.

[S. 14 amended by s. 11 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

15. Securities trading system rules

(1) A securities trading system may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, for or with respect to the operation of the system.

(2) Rules made under this section shall be of no effect unless approved by the Commission.

(3) Rules made under this section shall have the effect of a contract between—

- (a) the trading system; and
- (b) each person permitted to use the trading system to trade securities,

under which each of those persons agrees to observe and perform the obligations imposed on the person by those rules.

[S. 15 amended by s. 12 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

16. Enforcing rules made under this Sub-Part

(1) Where a person who is under an obligation to comply with or enforce rules under this Sub-Part fails to perform the obligation, the Commission may direct—

- (a) that person; or

(b) where the person is a corporation, its officers, to comply with such rules or enforce them, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a person who is under an obligation to comply with or enforce rules under this Sub-Part fails to perform the obligation, the Court may, on application by—

- (a) the Commission;
- (b) the licensee that made the rules; or
- (c) a person aggrieved by the failure,

give directions to—

- (i) the person against whom the order is sought; and
- (ii) its officers about compliance with, or enforcement of, the rules.

17. Obligations of securities exchanges

(1) A securities exchange shall—

[Added 10/17 (cio 24/7/17); amended 11/18 (cio 9/8/18).]

(2) An issuer shall not rely on subsection (1) (e) unless, not later than 10 days after the offer is made, the issuer notifies the Commission of the offer in accordance with FSC Rules.

(3) An issuer shall not rely on subsection (1) (g) (iii) where participation in the plan is a condition of appointment to office by, or employment with, the issuer.

(4) An issuer shall not rely on subsection (1) (d), (e), (f), (g) and (i) unless the provisions of the regulations and of FSC Rules relating to offers and issues of securities mentioned in the relevant provision are complied with.

(5) An issuer shall not rely on subsection (1) (i) unless—

(a) the Commission is notified in accordance with the FSC Rules of the proposed offer or issue at least 15 days before it takes place; and

(b) the Commission has not objected, by written notice to the issuer, within 15 days from the date it received the notification under paragraph (a).

[S. 70 amended by s. 61 of Act 11 of 2018 w.e.f. 9 August 2018.]

Sub-Part B – Contents of Prospectuses

71. General requirements

(1) A prospectus shall provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts concerning the securities to be offered and the person offering the securities, without omitting anything that would be required to allow investors to make an informed assessment of—

(a) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the issuer of the securities; and

(b) the rights and liabilities attaching to the securities.

(2) A prospectus shall contain—

(a) the date of the prospectus, which shall be the date on which the prospectus is provisionally registered with the Commission;

(b) a statement signed by all the directors of the issuer to the effect that they accept responsibility for the contents of the prospectus and that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, and after making reasonable inquiries, the prospectus complies with this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules;

- (c) such signatures as may be specified in FSC Rules; and
- (d) a statement to the effect that the Commission takes no responsibility for its contents.

(3) A prospectus, or a simplified prospectus, where so authorised by FSC Rules, shall contain all such facts, statements and information as may be specified by FSC Rules.

72. Consent to certain statements

(1) A prospectus shall not include any statement made by a person, or any statement said in the prospectus to be based on a statement made by a person, unless—

- (a) the person has consented to the statement being included in the prospectus in the form and context in which it appears or referred to in the prospectus;
- (b) the prospectus states that the person has given his consent;
- (c) the consent is filed with the Commission; and
- (d) the person has not withdrawn his consent before the date the prospectus is lodged for provisional registration with the Commission.

(2) For the purposes of this section, reference to –a statement by a person shall include reference to any report, analysis or study made by such person or referred to in such statement.

73. Prospectuses to be up to date

An issuer shall not issue securities under a prospectus unless the prospectus is up to date at the time of issue of the securities.

74. Language of prospectuses

A prospectus shall be in the English or French language.

75. Prospectus valid for 6 months

(1) An issuer shall not issue securities under a prospectus more than 6 months after the date the prospectus is granted effective registration.

(2) A prospectus shall include a statement that securities shall not be issued under the prospectus more than 6 months after the date the prospectus is granted effective registration.

Sub-Part C – Registration and Publication of Prospectuses

76. Registration of prospectuses

(1) The Commission shall, on filing of a prospectus, issue an acknowledgement of filing on such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate.

(2) The prospectus shall be accompanied by a true certified copy of the statement referred to in section 71 (2) (b).

(3) No person shall publish, or cause to be published, a securities advertisement for which a prospectus is required unless—

- (a) a prospectus in respect of the offer has been issued with an acknowledgement of filing;
- (b) the advertisement states that applications for subscription may only be made after the prospectus has been issued with an acknowledgement of filing and on an application form attached to the prospectus;
- (c) the prospectus is available for public inspection; and
- (d) the advertisement gives the address of the place where the prospectus can be inspected or requested.

(4) The Commission may, after a review based on disclosure requirements and not on the merits of the offer, grant a registration where—

- (a) the person making the offer has made any required amendment to the prospectus;
- (b) the Commission is satisfied that the prospectus meets all disclosure requirements of the Act, any regulations made under this Act or the FSC Rules;
- (c) consents mentioned in section 72 have been received; and
- (d) a prospectus in its final form as determined by the FSC Rules has been filed with the Commission.

(5) Pending registration of the prospectus—

- (a) a copy of the prospectus may be transmitted free of charge to any prospective subscriber who requests it by the issuer or the investment dealer responsible for the offer;
- (b) no application form for subscription shall accompany the prospectus;
- (c) no offer for subscription shall be entertained by the issuer or any investment dealer;
- (d) no indication of interest, other than an indication of interest without a firm commitment, shall be accepted from potential subscribers; and
- (e) no indication of interest shall be accepted by a person other than a licensed investment dealer.

(6) No action shall lie against the Commission or any member of the Commission for any damage or loss suffered as a result of any prospectus being acknowledged or registered by the Commission.

[S. 76 amended by s. 24 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

77. Requirement to make prospectuses available

The issuer of securities to which a registered prospectus relates shall make the prospectus available for public inspection free of charge at all times from the time the securities are first offered until the end of the period during which the offer of the securities remains open.

78. Material change

(1) Where a material change occurs after the registration is granted, the person making the offer shall file an amendment with the Commission.

(2) The amendment in subsection (1)—

- (a) shall not be filed more than 10 days after the change;
- (b) shall be subject to the approval of the Commission.

(3) Where an amendment has been approved by the Commission, the amendment shall be—

- (a) published in a newspaper of widespread circulation as soon as practicable; and
- (b) included with the prospectus when sent or given to a potential investor.

[S. 78 amended by s. 25 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

79. Subscription of securities

(1) No subscription for any securities offered to the public shall be effected unless—

- (a) registration of the prospectus is granted;
- (b) the subscription is made on an application form for subscription accompanying the prospectus; and
- (c) the subscription is effected through a licensed investment dealer who shall give a copy of the prospectus to each potential subscriber before subscription.

(2) The offer shall terminate on the date of closing indicated in the prospectus, which, subject to subsection (3), shall not be later than 60 days from the date registration is granted.

(3) The Commission may, on application, grant an extension for a period of 30 days for the offer to be terminated.

[S. 79 amended by s. 26 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

Sub-Part D – Enforcement

80. Criminal liability on defective prospectuses

(1) Any person who—

- (a) makes a misleading or deceptive statement in a prospectus; or
- (b) omits information or a statement from a prospectus that this Act, any regulations made under this Act or the FSC Rules requires to be included, shall commit an offence, whether or not the matter concerned arose before or after the prospectus is lodged with the Commission for registration, and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(2) Where the offence under subsection (1) is committed in circumstances where the person committing the offence either—

- (a) knows that—
 - (i) the statement is false or misleading; or
 - (ii) the matter is omitted and the omission is materially adverse from the point of view of an investor in the securities; or
- (b) the person is reckless as to whether—
 - (i) the statement is false or misleading; or
 - (ii) the omission of matter is materially adverse from the point of view of an investor in the securities, that person shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 500,000 rupees together with imprisonment for a term of not less than one year.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) a misleading statement includes a statement about a future matter made by a person having no reasonable grounds for making such statement;
- (b) reference to a prospectus includes reference to any document required by this Act, any regulations made under this Act or the FSC Rules to accompany the prospectus;
- (c) where the misleading statement or material omission in the prospectus is either—
 - (i) made by a person whose consent was obtained under section 72; or
 - (ii) based on a statement made by a person whose consent was obtained under section 72, only that person shall commit the offence.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) (c), a person specified in subsection (1) shall include, but shall not be limited to, a person who signs the prospectus as required under section 71 (2) (b) or the FSC Rules.

81. Defences to proceedings under section 80

(1) In proceedings for an offence under section 80 in respect of a statement, it shall be a defence where the defendant proves that he—

- (a) made all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) after doing so, believed on reasonable grounds that the statement was not misleading or deceptive.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under section 80, in respect of omission of matter, it shall be a defence where the defendant proves that he—

- (a) made all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) believed on reasonable grounds that there was no omission in respect of that matter from the prospectus.

(3) Regulations made under this Act may prescribe additional defences to proceedings for an offence under section 80.

82. Civil liability on defective prospectuses

(1) Any person who suffers loss or damage because—

- (a) a prospectus in respect of securities includes a misleading or deceptive statement; or
- (b) there is an omission from a prospectus in respect of securities and the omission is materially adverse from the point of view of an investor in those securities, may recover the amount of the loss or damage from—

- (i) the issuer or proposed issuer of the securities;
- (ii) each director of the issuer or proposed issuer of the securities;
- (iii) the maker of the statement, to the extent that it consented to such statement being included or referred to in the prospectus;
- (iv) any investment dealer acting as underwriter of the securities;
- (v) any person who has signed the prospectus; or
- (vi) any person knowingly concerned in making the misleading or deceptive statement in the prospectus or omitting the material from the prospectus.

(2) In proceedings under subsection (1) in respect of an omission of any matter, it shall be a defence where the defendant proves that—

- (a) he made all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) he believed on reasonable grounds that there was no omission in respect of that matter from the prospectus.

(3) For the purposes of this section, reference to a prospectus shall include any document accompanying a prospectus and any report, study or statement contained in a prospectus.

(4) Proceedings under subsection (1) shall not be commenced more than one year after the cause of action arose but the Court in which the proceedings are commenced may extend the period, either before or after it has ended, on such terms as it thinks fit.

(5) This section shall not affect any liability that a person has under any other enactment.

83. Right to withdraw and have money returned

(1) Where securities are issued to a person—

- (a) without a prospectus or any other disclosure document required under this Part, or any regulations or any FSC Rules made for the purposes of this Part; or
- (b) otherwise than on an application form for subscription attached to the prospectus, such issue of securities shall be void and the person shall have the right to return the securities and to have its application money repaid.

(2) The right shall be exercised by written notice to the issuer of the securities or the investment dealer who acted for the issuer within one month after the securities are issued.

(3) Where the issuer does not pay the application money or purchase price within 7 days after receiving the notice, the directors of the issuer shall be personally, or jointly and severally, liable for the repayment.

(4) This section shall apply to a sale of securities in the same way as it applies to an issue of securities, as if a reference to the issuer were a reference to the seller.

84. Commission may direct issues of securities to cease

(1) Where the Commission is satisfied that a prospectus or other disclosure document in relation to a distribution of securities filed with or registered by the Commission contravenes this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, it may give a direction that no offer, issue, or trade of the securities shall be made or that any offer, issue or trade of securities shall cease.

(2) Before giving the direction, the Commission shall give the issuer of the prospectus a reasonable opportunity to make written representations to the Commission on the matter.

(3) Where the Commission considers that a delay in making an order under subsection (1) would not be in the public interest, it may give an interim direction under subsection (1).

(4) Subsection (2) shall not apply to an interim direction, but an interim direction shall last for 21 days unless earlier revoked.

(5) The Commission may, at any time, revoke a direction or interim direction under this section.

(6) A direction and an interim direction shall be in writing and shall be served on the person ordered not to offer, issue, sell or transfer securities.

(7) Any person who refuses or fails to comply with a direction or an interim direction served on him under subsection (6) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (7), where any person fails to comply with a direction or an interim direction under this section, that person shall commit a separate offence for each day for which the direction or interim direction is not complied with, and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of 5,000 rupees per day.

85. Offences under this Part

(1) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Part shall commit an offence.

(2) Any person who commits an offence under this Part shall, on conviction, where no specific penalty is provided, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

PART VI – DISCLOSURE

86. Persons subject to disclosure requirements

(1) In this Act, —reporting issuer¹ means an issuer—

- (a) who by way of a prospectus, has made an offer of securities either before or after the commencement of this Act;
- (b) who has made a takeover offer by way of an exchange of securities or similar procedure;
- (c) whose securities are listed on a securities exchange in Mauritius; or
- (d) who has not less than 100 shareholders.

(2) Every reporting issuer shall comply with the disclosure requirements under this Part.

(3) The Commission shall keep a register of reporting issuers, which shall—

- (a) be available for consultation by the public; and
- (b) indicate whether the reporting issuer is in default of the disclosure requirements.

87. Timely disclosure

(1) Where a material change occurs in the affairs of a reporting issuer that is likely to have a significant influence on the value or market price of its securities, the reporting issuer shall immediately issue a press release disclosing the change, unless such disclosure would amount to a criminal offence.

(2) The press release shall be made in plain ordinary language so that investors can understand.

(3) A copy of the press release shall be filed with the Commission forthwith.

(4) Where the securities of the reporting issuer are listed on a securities exchange—

- (a) a copy of the press release shall be filed with the exchange forthwith;
- (b) unless it is not possible to keep the information confidential, the press release shall be issued after the close of trading; and
- (c) where the information is released before the close of trading, the issuer may request a halt in trading from the exchange, pending the issue and dissemination of the information.

(5) Without limiting what amounts to a material change, the following changes shall require disclosure under this section—

- (a) any distribution of securities in Mauritius or in any other jurisdiction;
- (b) any change in the beneficial ownership of the issuer's securities that affects or is likely to affect the control of the issuer;

- (c) any change of name of the reporting issuer;
- (d) any reorganisation in capital, merger or amalgamation;
- (e) a takeover bid on its own securities or made on the securities of another issuer or issuer bid;
- (f) any significant acquisition or disposition of assets, property or joint venture interests;
- (g) any stock split, share consolidation, stock dividend, exchange, redemption or other change in capital structure; and
- (h) any other change that may be provided for in the FSC Rules.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) (f), an acquisition or disposition is significant when the value of the asset, property or interest acquired or disposed of is not less than 10 per cent of the net assets of the reporting issuer.

[Amended 13/19 (cio 25/7/19).]

(7) A reporting issuer may choose not to issue a press release where—

- (a) the information concerns an incomplete proposal or negotiation;
- (b) the information comprises of matters of supposition or is insufficiently definite such that it would be misleading to the market for it to be disclosed;
- (c) the information is generated solely for the purposes of the internal management of the issuer and its advisers;
- (d) the information is a trade secret.

(8) The exemption in subsection (7) shall not apply where the board of the issuer reasonably believes that transactions in the securities have taken place or are likely to take place based on undisclosed information.

(9) Where the exemption in subsection (7) applies, the reporting issuer shall issue the press release under subsection (1) as soon as circumstances that justify non-disclosure end.

[S. 87 amended by s. 45 of Act 13 of 2019 w.e.f. 25 July 2019.]

88. Periodical disclosure

(1) Every reporting issuer shall file with the Commission and make public comparative quarterly financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, as soon as possible, but not later than 45 days after the end of each quarter.

(2) The financial statements under subsection (1) need not be audited.

(3) Every reporting issuer shall file with the Commission and make public an annual report which includes audited comparative financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and audited in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing, and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, as soon as possible, but not later than 90 days of its balance sheet date.

(4) In the case of a company with a subsidiary, the financial statements shall be consolidated.

(5) The annual reports and the financial statements required under this section shall be in such form, and shall include such information, as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(6) Notwithstanding section 115 (4) of the Companies Act, the annual audited financial statements shall be approved by the board of directors.

(7) Section 224 of the Companies Act to the extent that it relates to exemptions from accounting and disclosure requirements, and section 356 of the Companies Act shall not be applicable to persons who are subject to the disclosure requirements under this Part.

(8) This section shall not apply to a collective investment scheme authorised or recognised under Part VIII.

89. Duties of auditors

(1) Where in the course of his work, the auditor of a reporting issuer, other than a collective investment scheme, becomes aware of any matter which is such as to give the auditor reasonable cause to believe that—

- (a) there has been a material adverse change in the risks inherent in the business of a reporting issuer with the potential to jeopardise the ability of the reporting issuer to continue as a going concern;
- (b) the reporting issuer may be in contravention of this Act, any regulations made under this Act, any FSC Rules or any directions issued by the Commission;
- (c) a financial crime has been, is being or is likely to be committed; or
- (d) serious irregularities have occurred,

the auditor shall report such matter in writing to the Commission.

(2) No duty to which an auditor of a reporting issuer may be subject shall be regarded as breached by reason of his communicating in good faith to the Commission any information under subsection (1).

90. Notification of insiders' interests

(1) Where, at the commencement of this Act, an insider of a reporting issuer or any of his associates, has an interest in the securities of the reporting issuer or of an associate of the reporting issuer, that insider shall give written notice of the interest to the reporting issuer in such form as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(2) Where an insider of a reporting issuer or any of his associates acquires an interest in the securities of the reporting issuer or of an associate of the reporting issuer, that insider shall within one month, give written notice of such acquisition to the reporting issuer in such form as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(3) Subsection (2) shall apply to a person who, not being an insider, becomes an insider as a result of acquiring such interest in securities.

91. Notification of changes in insiders' interests

(1) An insider of a reporting issuer shall, within 14 days, notify the issuer of any change of his interest or that of any of his associates in the securities of the reporting issuer or of any associate of the reporting issuer in such form as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to a person who, being an insider of a reporting issuer, ceases to be an insider as a result of such change.

92. Notification to securities exchanges and Commission

(1) Where an issuer is given a notice under section 90 or 91, the issuer shall, before the end of the day following the day of notification, give a copy of the notice to—

- (a) the Commission;
- (b) the exchange where the securities of the reporting issuer are listed on a securities exchange.

(2) The notice specified in subsection (1) may be published in accordance with the FSC Rules or rules made by the exchange.

93. Offences under this Part

(1) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Part shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where under any provision in this Part, a time period for compliance is specified, the person shall commit a separate offence for each day the provision is not complied with after the time period has elapsed and shall, on conviction, be liable for each offence, to a fine of 5,000 rupees per day.

PART VII – TAKEOVERS

94. Regulating takeovers

(1) Regulations made under this Act may provide for—

- (a) the making of takeovers; and
- (b) the rights and obligations of persons when a takeover is made.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), –takeover~~ll~~ means an offer made by or on behalf of a person (–offeror~~ll~~) to acquire such securities of the offeree which will result in the offeror acquiring effective control of the offeree, either at one time or over a period of time.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, an offeror acquires effective control of a company where a dealing or dealings in securities of the company results in the offeror and its associates together having the right to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than the percentage specified in FSC Rules of the rights attached to the voting shares of the company.

[\[Amended 27/12 \(cio 22/12/12\).\]](#)

(4) In subsection (3), –associatell includes a person acting in concert with individuals or companies who, pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, cooperate, through the acquisition by any of them of shares in a company, to obtain or consolidate effective control of that company.

[Inserted 20/11 (cio 16/7/11).]

[S. 27 amended by s. 26 of Act 20 of 2011 w.e.f. 16 July 2011; s. 26 of Act 27 of 2012 w.e.f. 22 December 2012.]

95. Issuer bids or buybacks

(1) Notwithstanding the Companies Act, a reporting issuer who intends to acquire securities issued by it, other than debt securities not convertible into shares, shall proceed in accordance with this Act, any regulations made under this Act and any FSC Rules.

(2) A reporting issuer shall be exempt from subsection (1) where—

- (a) the issuer purchases securities in the normal course in the open market, through a securities exchange recognised by the Commission for the purpose of this section;
- (b) the aggregate number, or, in the case of convertible debt securities, the aggregate principal amount, of securities acquired by the issuer within a period of 12 months in reliance on this exemption does not exceed 5 per cent of the securities of that class issued and outstanding at the commencement of this period; and
- (c) the issuer publishes a notice of intention in the form and manner required by the rules of a securities exchange or as may be prescribed.

96. Penalty for contravention of regulations or FSC Rules

(1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any regulations or any FSC Rules made for the purposes of this Part shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where under any provision of the regulations, a time period for compliance is specified, the regulations may—

- (a) provide that the contravention of the provision may constitute a separate offence for each day the contravention continues after the time period for compliance has elapsed;
- (b) prescribe the daily monetary penalty that shall be applicable for the breach of the provision.

PART VIII – COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES

Sub-Part A – Authorisation and Licensing

97. Authorisation of collective investment schemes and closed-end funds

(1) No person shall promote or operate a collective investment scheme or any closed-end fund which is not authorised or recognised by the Commission.

(2) The assets of the collective investment scheme shall not be held for safekeeping by a person other than a person licensed as a custodian and who shall be independent from the CIS manager.

(3) The authorisation of a collective investment scheme or of a closed-end fund may be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), the Commission may make FSC Rules in relation to the categorisation of schemes for the purposes of this Act and regulations made under this Act.

(5) Where the Commission is satisfied that a collective investment scheme or closed-end fund meets the requirements prescribed or specified in FSC Rules, as may be applicable, it shall grant the authorisation.

(6) An authorisation given by the Commission in accordance with this Act shall not be interpreted as an undertaking as to the merits of a scheme.

(7) A closed-end fund shall comply with such other requirements as may be prescribed.

[S. 97 amended by s. 27 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

98. CIS managers

(1) No person shall act as a CIS manager for a collective investment scheme or hold himself out to act as a CIS manager for a collective investment scheme unless the person holds and is complying with the conditions of a CIS manager licence.

(2) The Commission shall not grant a CIS manager licence to an applicant unless—

- (a) the applicant is a body corporate;
- (b) the Commission is satisfied that the applicant will be able, if licensed, to comply with the requirements of the FSC Rules as to the financial and other resources requirements needed by the CIS manager for the collective investment scheme; and
- (c) the applicant and each of its officers are fit and proper persons and meet the requirements relating to eligibility, duties and obligations, rules of ethics and other such conditions as may be specified in FSC Rules.

99. CIS administrators

(1) No person shall, by way of business, provide administration services to a collective investment scheme unless the CIS manager or the collective investment scheme, as the case may be, seeks the prior approval of the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall not approve a person under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) the person is a body corporate and meets the requirements in relation to CIS administrators as may be prescribed or specified in FSC Rules; and
- (b) the Commission is satisfied that the person, and each of its officers are fit and proper persons.

(3) For the purposes of this Part—

- (a) —administration services¹¹ means services with respect to the operations and administrative affairs of a collective investment scheme including—
 - (i) accounting, valuation or reporting services; or
 - (ii) the provision of the principal office of a collective investment scheme; but
- (b) does not include—
 - (i) the provision of a registered office to a collective investment scheme where the usual corporate, secretarial and related services are provided;
 - (ii) the maintenance of any register of shareholders or participants or the registration and payment of fees; and
 - (iii) the provision of investment advice or investment management or trading execution services.

100. Custodian licence

(1) No person shall hold the assets of a collective investment scheme for safekeeping unless the person holds a custodian licence.

(2) The Commission shall not grant a custodian licence for the purposes of this section unless the applicant—

- (a) is a bank or is a trust company that is a subsidiary of a bank; and
- (b) meets the requirements relating to duties and obligations, use of sub-custodians and other conditions as may be prescribed or specified in FSC Rules.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent a trustee of a trust set up under the repealed Unit Trust Act or the Trusts Act from acting as custodian in relation to the property of the trust provided that the trustee complies with the requirements for custodians under this Act, any regulations made under this Act, and any FSC Rules.

101. Recognition of foreign schemes

(1) The Commission may, on application, recognise a collective investment scheme established in a foreign country.

(2) Recognition may be subject to such conditions that the Commission considers necessary or desirable for the protection of participants in the scheme.

102. Application of licensing provisions

An application for a licence, approval, authorisation and recognition under this Sub-Part shall be made in accordance with Part IV of the Financial Services Act in such form and manner as may be specified in FSC Rules.

[S. 102 repealed and replaced by s. 28 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

103. Company managing its own scheme

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), section 98 of this Act shall not apply to a company that manages its own scheme.

(2) Any company wishing to manage its own scheme shall seek the prior approval of the Commission.

(3) Any company wishing to manage its own scheme shall, in relation to that scheme, be subject to all the duties and obligations, conditions and requirements that apply to a CIS manager under this Act or as may be prescribed or specified in FSC Rules.

104. Offences under this Part

(1) Any person who operates a collective investment scheme in contravention of the provisions under this Part shall commit an offence.

(2) Any person who acts as a CIS manager for a collective investment scheme or holds himself out to act as CIS manager for a collective investment scheme without a CIS manager licence shall commit an offence.

(3) Any person who provides administration services to a collective investment scheme or holds himself out to provide administration services to a collective investment scheme without the approval of the Commission shall commit an offence.

(4) Where the assets of a collective investment scheme are held for safekeeping by a person who does not hold a custodian licence, both that person and the CIS manager of the scheme shall commit an offence.

(5) An offence under this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Sub-Part B – Duties of CIS Managers and their Officers

105. Duties of CIS managers and officers

(1) Notwithstanding any other obligation arising under the Companies Act or under a contract with respect to the duties of a director, the CIS manager and its officers shall, in exercising their powers and duties—

- (a) act honestly;
- (b) exercise the degree of care and diligence that would be reasonably expected of a person in that position;
- (c) act in the best interests of the participants in the scheme and, where there is a conflict between the interests of the participants and their own interests, give priority to the participants' interests;
- (d) treat the participants who hold interests of the same class equally and participants who hold interests of different classes fairly;
- (e) not make use of information acquired through being a CIS manager or officer to—
 - (i) gain an improper advantage for themselves or another person; or
 - (ii) cause detriment to the participants in the scheme;
- (f) ensure that all payments out of the scheme property are made in accordance with the constitutive documents of the scheme, this Act, any regulations made under this Act and any FSC Rules; and
- (g) report to the Commission, as soon as practicable after it becomes aware of any breach of—
 - (i) this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules; or
 - (ii) the scheme's constitutive documents that have had, or are likely to have, a materially adverse effect on the interests of participants.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees together with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

(3) Notwithstanding section 103, this section shall apply to a company managing its own scheme.

(4) Regulations made under this Act and FSC Rules may provide for additional duties of CIS managers, their officers and employees.

Sub-Part C – Disclosure

106. Disclosure by CIS and CIS managers

(1) Every collective investment scheme shall file with the Commission and make public interim financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, as soon as possible, but not later than 45 days after the closing date of the interim period specified in FSC Rules.

(2) A CIS manager shall file with the Commission interim financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, as soon as possible, but not later than 45 days after the closing date of each interim period specified in FSC Rules.

(3) The interim financial statements specified in subsections (1) and (2) need not be audited.

(4) Every collective investment scheme shall, as soon as possible, but not later than 90 days of its balance sheet date, file with the Commission and make public an annual report which shall include financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and audited in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing, and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, by an audit firm approved by the Commission.

(5) Every CIS manager shall, as soon as possible, but not later than 90 days of its balance sheet date, file with the Commission an annual report which shall include financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and audited in accordance with the International Standards on Auditing, and such other standards as may be issued under the Financial Reporting Act, by an audit firm approved by the Commission.

(6) The annual reports and the financial statements required under this section shall be in such form, and shall include such other information, as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(7) Further provisions about auditing in relation to collective investment schemes may be specified in FSC Rules.

(8) Every collective investment scheme shall file with the Commission a prospectus or other disclosure document as may be specified in FSC Rules.

(9) Any collective investment scheme or CIS manager that contravenes any provision of this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

(10) Where a collective investment scheme is constituted as a trust, the offence in subsection (9) shall be committed by the trustee and the CIS manager.

107. Appointment and duties of auditors

(1) The Commission shall not approve an audit firm under section 106 (4) or (5) unless it is satisfied that the audit firm has adequate experience, expertise and resources to carry out such an audit.

(2) The Commission may require the auditor of a CIS manager or collective investment scheme to submit such additional information in relation to his audit as the Commission considers necessary.

(3) Where in the course of his work, the auditor of a CIS manager or of a collective investment scheme becomes aware of any matter which is such as to give the auditor reasonable cause to believe that—

- (a) there has been a material adverse change in the risks inherent in the business of a CIS manager or a collective investment scheme, as the case may be, with the potential to jeopardise the ability of the CIS manager or the collective investment scheme to continue as a going concern;

- (b) the CIS manager or the collective investment scheme may be in contravention of this Act, any regulations made under this Act, any FSC Rules or any directions issued by the Commission;
- (c) a criminal offence involving fraud or dishonesty has been, is being or is likely to be committed; or
- (d) serious irregularities have occurred,

the auditor shall report such matter in writing to the Commission.

(4) No duty to which an auditor of a CIS manager or of a collective investment scheme may be subject shall be regarded as breached by reason of his communicating in good faith to the Commission any information under subsection (3).

108. Termination of appointment of auditor

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may direct a CIS manager or a collective investment scheme, as the case may be, to terminate the appointment of an audit firm which contravenes any requirement of this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules or which no longer qualifies to provide an independent auditing service to that CIS manager or collective investment scheme.

(2) The Commission shall not issue a direction under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) the reasons for the termination of the appointment have been disclosed; and
- (b) the auditor, the CIS manager or collective investment scheme are given the opportunity to make representations on the matter.

Sub-Part D – Terminating Collective Investment Schemes

109. Arrangements for terminating and winding up collective investment schemes

(1) A purported termination of a collective investment scheme shall not be effective unless approved by the Commission.

(2) The CIS manager of a collective investment scheme shall not wind up the scheme except in accordance with a plan for the winding up approved by the Commission.

(3) The Commission shall not approve a plan for the winding up of a collective investment scheme unless it is satisfied that the interests of the participants are properly protected.

(4) This section shall apply subject to any order of the Court under section 110.

110. Terminating and winding up collective investment schemes – powers of Court

(1) The Court may, on application, make orders terminating the operation of a collective investment scheme.

(2) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1), it may also make any order it thinks fit for the winding up of the scheme.

(3) An application under subsection (1) may be made by—

- (a) the Commission; or
- (b) a participant in the scheme.

(4) Where an application under subsection (1) is presented by any person other than the Commission, the Commission shall be entitled to be heard by the Court on the application.

(5) The Court shall not make an order under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the scheme is being operated in contravention of this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules or its constitutive documents, and it is in the interests of the participants in the scheme, or the public interest, to terminate the scheme; or
- (b) it is just and equitable to make the order.

(6) An application under this section shall be made in the presence of the Commission.

PART IX – MARKET ABUSES

111. Insider dealing prohibited

(1) No person who has inside information about securities of a reporting issuer shall—

- (a) in reliance of such information, buy, sell or otherwise deal in securities of that reporting issuer or in securities that give a right to buy, sell or exchange the securities of the reporting issuer;
- (b) counsel, procure or cause another person to deal in the securities mentioned in paragraph (a);
- (c) disclose the information, otherwise than in the proper performance of that person's employment, office or profession, to another person, where the person knows or ought to have known that the information was inside information.

(2) A person informed of the investment programme established by a collective investment scheme by the CIS manager of that scheme, or an investment adviser acting for that scheme, is deemed to have acted in contravention of subsection (1) where he uses such information for his own benefit in trading in securities of a reporting issuer included in the programme.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (1), it shall be a defence if the person establishes that he reasonably believed that the information was generally known to the public.

(4) Where a person is convicted of an offence of insider dealing, he shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 500,000 rupees and not more than one million rupees, or a fine under subsection (5) whichever is higher, together with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years.

(5) A fine under this subsection shall be an amount of not more than 3 times the amount of any profit gained or loss avoided by any person as a result of the offence.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the profit gained or loss avoided shall be—

- (a) in the case of a person who committed the offence by trading in securities relying on inside information—
 - (i) the difference between the price at which the initial trade was effected and the average market price of the security in the 10 trading days following general disclosure of the information; or
 - (ii) where the securities position has been liquidated within those 10 trading days, the difference between the price at which the initial trade has been effected and the price actually obtained to the extent that the price yields a greater profit than what would be obtained at the average market price;
- (b) in the case of a person who committed the offence of communicating inside information, the consideration received for having communicated the information.

112. Disgorgement

(1) Where the Court finds, on application by the Commission, that a person has done an act of insider dealing, the Court may make an order requiring that person to pay to the Commission, an amount determined by the Court.

(2) The maximum amount that may be ordered to be paid under subsection (1) shall be an amount equal to the amount found by the Court to be the amount of the profit that may have been realised or loss avoided by the offender because of the offence.

(3) In making an order under this section, the Court shall have due regard to any administrative penalty imposed under section 129.

(4) Any amount recovered under this section shall be paid into a compensation fund for the purpose of compensating investors that suffer a loss by the insider dealing.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the profit that may have been realised or the loss that may have been avoided by the offender because of the offence shall be computed in accordance with section 111 (6).

(6) For the purposes of this section, proceedings before the Court shall be civil proceedings.

113. False trading in securities

(1) No person shall do or omit to do anything, that has the effect, or is likely to have the effect, of creating a false or misleading appearance on a securities exchange—

- (a) of active trading in securities;
- (b) in relation to the market for securities; or

(c) in relation to the price of securities.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), a false or misleading appearance of active trading in securities is created where a person carries out or offers to carry out, directly or indirectly, a sale or purchase of securities that does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership of the securities.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a person, taken together with any one of his associates,

- (a) had an interest in the securities before the transaction; and
- (b) has substantially the same interest in the securities after the transaction, the sale or purchase does not involve a change in his beneficial ownership.

(4) It shall be a defence to a prosecution for an offence under this section where it is established that the person charged did not know, and could not reasonably have known, that the relevant act or omission has the effect, or is likely to have the effect, mentioned in subsection (1).

114. Market rigging

(1) No person shall engage in, or carry out, directly or indirectly a transaction that, by itself or in conjunction with another transaction, creates or sustains, or is likely to create or sustain, an artificial price for securities on a securities exchange in Mauritius.

(2) No person shall enter into, or carry out, a fictitious or artificial transaction or device that affects the price of securities on a securities market in Mauritius.

(3) It shall be a defence to a prosecution for an offence under subsection (1) where the defendant proves that he did not know, and could not reasonably have known, that the transaction has the effect, or is likely to have the effect, mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to the conditions that may be specified in FSC Rules, the fixing and stabilising of the market price of a security by an investment dealer during an underwriting in accordance with the rules of the exchange and the FSC Rules shall not be an offence under this section.

115. Fraud in relation to securities

136. — 137. —

[Ss. 136 and 137 repealed by s. 38 (d) of Act 14 of 2009 w.e.f. 30 July 2009.]

PART XII – MISCELLANEOUS OFFENCES

138. False statements to securities exchanges, CDS, or SRO

(1) No person shall make a statement or give information to an

SRO, a securities exchange or a clearing and settlement facility, being a statement or information that the person is required to give under this Act, any regulations made under this Act, any FSC Rules or SRO Rules, or rules of a securities exchange or a clearing and settlement facility, as applicable, where the person knows or ought reasonably to have known that the statement or information is false or misleading.

(2) No person shall omit to state any matter, in or in connection with any application to an SRO, a securities exchange or a clearing and settlement facility, being a matter required by this Act, any regulations made under this Act, any FSC Rules or SRO Rules, or rules of a securities exchange or clearing and settlement facility, as may be applicable, where the person knows or ought reasonably to have known that, because of the omission, the application is misleading in a material respect.

(3) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

139. Failure to furnish information

Any person who refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to furnish information or a document that the person is required to furnish under this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

140. Obstructing Commission

Any person who hinders or obstructs the Commission, the Chief Executive or any person authorised by the Commission or the Chief Executive, in the performance of their duties under this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

141. Offences committed partly in and partly out of Mauritius

(1) Where this Act or any regulations made under this Act provides or provide that a person commits an offence where the person does a particular act, the offence is committed even where the act is done partly outside Mauritius.

(2) Where this Act or any regulations made under this Act provides or provide that a person commits an offence where the person does 2 or more particular acts, the offence is committed even if some of those acts are done outside Mauritius.

142. Continuing offences

(1) Where under any provision of this Act—

- (a) an act is required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time;
- (b) failure or refusal to comply with any provision is an offence; and

- (c) the obligation to do the act continues after the period has ended or the time has passed, the person shall commit a separate offence for each day on which the failure or refusal continues, and shall be liable on conviction for each further offence.

(2) The Commission may, by rules, in relation to a provision referred to in subsection (1), provide for a penalty for each day that the offence continues.

PART XIII – CO-OPERATION IN SECURITIES REGULATION

143. Exchange of information

(1) Notwithstanding section 83 of the Financial Services Act, the Commission may give a securities exchange, a clearing and settlement facility or any SRO any information relevant to the enforcement of this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules for the purpose of discharging their respective functions.

(2) Any information given under subsection (1) may be given subject to conditions specified by the Commission, including conditions restricting the use and disclosure of the information imparted.

[S. 143 amended by s. 36 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

144. —

[S. 144 repealed by s. 37 of Act 15 of 2007 w.e.f. 28 September 2007.]

PART XIV – MISCELLANEOUS

145. Control of advertisements

(1) The Commission may make rules in respect of the publication, form and content of securities advertisements.

(2) Rules made under subsection (1) may—

- (a) prohibit the publication of advertisements of any description, whether by reference to their contents, to the persons by whom they are published or otherwise;
- (b) make provision as to the matters which should or should not be included in such advertisements;
- (c) provide for any exemptions from any requirement imposed by any FSC Rules;
- (d) provide for offences and penalties for the breach of any requirement under the FSC Rules.

(3) Where, it appears to the Commission that a securities advertisement—

- (a) does not comply with any requirement imposed in the FSC Rules; or

(b) is false or misleading,

the Commission shall issue such directions to the persons who have published or caused to be published the securities advertisement as it deems appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) A direction under subsection (1) may—

- (a) require a person to modify, in whole or in part, the advertisement;
- (b) require the publication of securities advertisement to cease.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prejudice any remedy that an aggrieved person may have against a person who published or caused to be published an advertisement contrary to the requirements in the FSC Rules or which is false or misleading.

146. Exemptions and modifications

(1) The Commission may, by a decision or by rules, exempt a person or any class of persons from any provision under Parts V, VI, VII and VIII.

(2) The Commission may, by a decision or by rules, modify the application of any provision specified in subsection (1) in relation to any person or class of persons.

(3) Where, under this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, a person is required to do or may do a particular thing by a particular time or within a particular period, the Commission may, on application, extend the period for doing the thing, and may do so either before or after the period has ended.

(4) An exemption or modification may be made subject to such conditions as the Commission thinks fit.

147. Winding up of licensees

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a person shall not take a step in connection with the winding up of a person holding a securities exchange licence, a clearing and settlement facility licence or a securities trading system licence without the approval of the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall not give its approval under subsection (1) unless it appears to the Commission that the interests of the users of the exchange, facility or system, will be properly protected in the winding up.

(3) The Commission may make an application to the Court for the winding up of a licensee where it is satisfied that it is necessary in the interest of investors or clients of the licensee, as the case may be.

(4) Where an application for the winding up of a licensee is presented by a person other than the Commission, a copy of the application, shall, at the same time, be served on the Commission and the Commission shall be entitled to be heard by the Court on the application.

148. Compensation fund

(1) There shall be established and maintained in such manner as may be prescribed, one or more compensation funds, for such purposes as may be prescribed.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), a compensation fund may provide for the compensation of investors who suffer pecuniary loss as a result of—

- (a) the inability of a licensee under this Act or any collective investment scheme to satisfy claims arising from civil liability by it in connection with services provided;
- (b) fraud or defalcation by a licensee, a collective investment scheme or any of its officers or employees; or
- (c) the insolvency or bankruptcy of any licensee or collective investment scheme.

(3) A compensation fund shall be administered in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), regulations made under this Act may provide for—

- (a) the management of the fund by such committee as may be set up by the Commission;
- (b) the levying of contributions from licensees and collective investment schemes and other means of financing the fund;
- (c) the power to subscribe to insurance policies;
- (d) the mode of determining the right to compensation payable under the fund and the circumstances in which such right may be excluded or modified;
- (e) the power to settle claims;
- (f) specifications as to the quantum of the compensation;
- (g) the right of subrogation to the fund in order to recover from any person whose liability is extinguished or reduced by the payment of the compensation;
- (h) the terms and conditions on which compensation is to be payable; and
- (i) accounts to be kept in respect of the fund.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prevent any SRO, securities exchange or clearing and settlement facility from establishing such compensation fund under their rules for such purpose as may be approved by the Commission.

149. Representative proceedings

(1) A person (the ~~applicant~~) who commences proceedings in any Court for damages or other relief under Part V, regulations made under Part VII, Part VIII, or under Part IX may, with the leave of the Court, commence and maintain those proceedings in the name of the applicant and for all persons who have a claim against the defendant in the proceedings (the ~~claimants~~), being a claim in which substantially the same questions of fact or law arise.

(2) In representative proceedings, the Court may make any appropriate order for the conduct of the proceedings, including orders—

- (a) for advertising the commencement of the proceedings;
- (b) for the identification of claimants; and
- (c) in respect of claimants who do not wish to pursue their claims through the proceedings.

(3) Where a claimant, either before or after the representative proceedings are commenced but before they are determined, commences another set of proceedings in respect of the same loss, the claimant shall not be entitled to recover in the representative proceedings, and the Court may make any appropriate order for the conduct of the relevant proceedings.

(4) The applicant shall conduct representative proceedings to the exclusion of the claimants concerned, and may withdraw, abandon or compromise the proceedings, but an agreement or compromise of the proceedings shall be subject to the approval of the Court.

(5) In giving judgment in representative proceedings, or in approving a compromise or agreement in relation to such proceedings, the Court shall make orders for the publication of the judgment and any related matter in the Gazette and otherwise as the Court may direct.

(6) A judgment or order in representative proceedings binds all claimants other than—

- (a) those that the Court has by order excluded from the proceedings under subsection (2) (c) or otherwise; and
- (b) claimants mentioned in subsection (3).

(7) The Commission may, with the leave of the Court, commence representative proceedings as applicant even though it has not suffered any loss or damage, but may only recover for itself its costs incurred in the proceedings.

150. Publicity

(1) Subject to this section, any person may, on request, review or copy any document lodged with the Commission under this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules.

(2) The Commission may, by rules, specify reasonable procedures for requests, and reasonable terms and fees, for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) The Commission may refuse to permit a document to be reviewed or copied, in whole or part, where it is satisfied that—

- (a) information in the document is confidential to the person lodging the document, and has a real commercial value to the person that would be seriously and unreasonably prejudiced if the information were to be made generally available; or
- (b) information in the document is personal information about a person and it is in the public interest that the information should not be generally available.

151. Power to grant relief

(1) Where, in civil proceedings against a person for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such a person, it appears to the Court that the person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default or breach but that the person has acted honestly and that, having regard to all the circumstances, the person ought fairly to be excused, the Court may make an order relieving the person, wholly or partly, from liability on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Supreme Court may, on application by a person who has reason to believe that a claim under or in connection with this Act, any regulation made under this Act or any FSC Rules will or might be made against him in respect of negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty in a capacity as such a person, make an order under subsection (1).

(3) Any application under this section shall be made in the presence of the Commission.

152. Derivative contract not a contract of wager

A derivative contract shall not be construed as a contract of wager and any obligation arising from such contract shall, notwithstanding Article 1965 of the Code Civil Mauricien, be enforceable in any Court of law.

153. Immunity

(1) No action shall lie against any person who makes a report in good faith to the Commission that is required or permitted under this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, or that relates to a matter in respect of which the Commission has functions under this Act, the regulations or the FSC Rules whether or not the person is required to make the report.

(2) No person shall be subjected to any prejudice in his employment, or penalised in any way, on the ground that the person has reported, in good faith a suspected breach of this Act, any regulations made under this Act or any FSC Rules, even where there was no obligation to report.

154. Regulations

(1) The Minister may—

- (a) make such regulations, as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) by regulations, amend the Schedule.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for—
